CAITLIN BEYL

Partner

Caitlin handles defense work in the areas of workers' compensation defense and reimbursement dispute litigation. Caitlin handles trial practice, appellate practice, and administrative hearings before the Florida First DCA, the Judge of Compensation Claims and the Florida Department of Administrative Hearings. She has represented state agencies, national insurance companies, PEOs, TPAs, and self-insureds. Caitlin is licensed in Georgia and now appears before the Georgia State Board of Worker's Compensation.

Caitlin assists employers and financial institutions alike in the processing and handling of Writs of Garnishment, protecting the rights of the Garnishee.

Caitlin enjoys presenting educational lectures throughout the southeast about a variety of specialized defense topics. She is licensed by the Florida Division of Financial Services to provide continuing education instruction.
