CLASS ACTIONS

McConnaughhay Coonrod has built a reputation for providing effective and efficient representation in class actions involving complex and sophisticated legal issues such as pre-certification hearing discovery, certification hearings, interlocutory appeals in connection with certification rulings, certifying settlement classes, litigation of the claim merits and coordinating the administration of class action settlements. These services are provided in relation to the many areas our attorneys practice. Further, our attorneys have been successful in emphasizing due process and procedural considerations involved in class actions, as well as the proof necessary for causation and fact of injury.

We will pursue or defend the interests of our clients in class action litigation at the state or federal trial court level or the appellate level. In doing so, when appropriate, we will seek to negotiate the best possible settlement to obtain the desired result or avoid costly litigation. Our attorneys can assist and defend your organization in addressing the following actions:

- Business and Commercial Disputes
- Civil Rights Claims

- Consumer Actions
- Employment Actions
- Personal Injury Claims
- Product Liability/Defect Actions

No matter the dispute or issue, we strive to represent our clients in the most effective manner possible in this multi-stage and complicated area of the law.
