INDUSTRIES SERVED

The primary focus of McConnaughhay, Coonrod, Weaver & Stern, P.A. is representation of the business community, directly and through carrier-based representation. The breadth of different industries in which our clients work is significant, ranging from banking and finance, to large manufacturing or processing facilities, to small businesses and not-for profit organizations. Our effort to guide and protect businesses is not limited to any one specific segment of the economy. Our people have the experience and ability to address issues in a diverse range of workplaces and across Florida and Southern Georgia.

With each case, we work hard to learn about our client to provide the best opportunity for a favorable outcome, tailoring our efforts to meet both the legal and practical requirements of each situation. Representative industries in which our clients operate include:

- Banking and Finance
- Healthcare
- Service and hospitality
- State and local government
- Manufacturing or processing facilities
- Not-for-profit and religious organizations
