

STEPHANIE ROMAN CABAN

Attorney

Stephanie Roman Caban concentrates her practice in the areas of insurance defense, civil liability defense, employment law, and other business-related matters. Stephanie handles trial and appellate practice for her clients, including national insurance companies, self-insureds, professional associations, and state agencies. She enjoys analyzing and developing defense strategies to tackle complex procedural and evidentiary issues.

Prior to joining the ranks of McConnaughay, Coonrod, Pope, Weaver and Stern, P.A., Stephanie was a judicial extern for the Honorable Chief Judge Lori S. Rowe at the First District Court of Appeal and had handled complex-litigation appeals at a local boutique firm. During law school, she also developed an expertise in government law while serving as a law clerk at a firm representing community development districts and local government associations. Stephanie has also aided individuals and businesses navigate our nation's complex immigration laws.

Prior to law school and throughout college, Stephanie worked in the retail and service industry where she gained valuable skills and insights impacting her law
