

WORKERS' COMPENSATION ATTORNEY- GAINESVILLE, FL

POSITION TITLE: ATTORNEY

JOB LOCATION: Gainesville – Workers' Compensation Department

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

J.D. from recognized law school accredited by the American Bar Association and a member of the Florida Bar. Must be highly organized, detail oriented and possess exceptional communication, analytical and writing skills.

SCHEDULE: Full-Time.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF DUTIES: Workers' compensation/insurance defense. Conduct legal research and analysis of applicable statutes. Develop strategies, evidence, and arguments in preparation for trial. Prepare a variety of legal documents such as discovery requests and responses, pleadings, subpoenas, and medical composites. Uses computer programs and document management systems and takes advantage of technology to enhance job performance. Organizes and electronically maintains case files. Maintains the firm's core values of honesty, integrity, accountability, teamwork, diversity, equity, inclusion, belonging, and client commitment in order to support a positive work environment.

HOW TO APPLY: Submit a completed McConnaughay Coonrod employment application to: HR Department. Visit www.mcconnaughay.com to obtain the required application and additional information. Notify the Human Resources Department in advance if you require special disability accommodations to participate in the employment process.

McConnaughay, Coonrod, Pope, Weaver, & Stern, P.A. is headquartered in Tallahassee with offices in locations throughout the state of Florida and southern Georgia. We are a leader in providing litigation services to insurers and employers - including large corporations, mid-sized companies and small businesses. We are recognized for our defense work in workers' compensation, and the full spectrum growth, and understands the importance of maintaining an appropriate work life balance.

McConnaughay Coonrod is an At-Will Employer

McConnaughay Coonrod employs only U.S. citizens and lawfully authorized aliens who can provide evidence of their identity and employment eligibility as required by federal law.

Equal Opportunity Employer

McConnaughay Coonrod does not tolerate violence in the workplace.